

Kennesaw State University
Construction Management Department
Industry Advisory Board By-Laws

ARTICLE 1: Objectives

1. Support the strategic direction and provide a vision to the Construction Management Department in order to become one of the nation's premiere technological universities.
2. Advance and support the highest quality faculty and educational programs for all undergraduate and graduate programs offered by the Construction Management Department as outlined below:
 - a. Certificate Programs in Construc

7. Each Committee shall elect a Vice Chair or multiple vice Chairs who shall serve at the pleasure or in the absence of the Committee Chair.
8. Each Committee Chair shall also serve on the Executive Committee for the duration of his term as Committee Chair.
9. The Executive Committee shall provide direction to the committees and shall approve major decisions before implementation.
10. Past Board Chair shall not become a committee Chair or Vice Chair but he may continue on the committee as an adviser.

ARTICLE 7: Compen

