

As of the first day of classes for the term, an economic advantage waiver may be granted to a dependent or independent student who can provide clear evidence that the student, the student's parent/U.S. court-appointed guardian, or spouse has relocated to the State of Georgia to accept full-time, self-sustaining employment and has established domicile in the State of Georgia. Relocation to the state must be for reasons other than enrolling in an

- Georgia license or State ID (front & back)
US Passport signed by student
Employment Authorization Card (front & back)
US Certificate of Citizenship/Naturalization signed by student
Unexpired Military ID (the seal must be visible and legible)
- Permanent Resident Card (front & back)
Immigration